

Job Description

Title	Skilled Labourer
Department	Engineering
Section	Operations & Maintenance
Reports to	Supervisor in Charge

Overall Purpose of Position

The position is accountable to the Supervisor in Charge for the accomplishment of any delegated work on Air Malta's fleet of aircraft or facilities.

Main Accountabilities & Responsibilities

- Responsible to support Technicians and Supervisors/Engineers during routine, scheduled and unscheduled maintenance on all stores facilities as directed by superiors.
- Carries out the routine movement of equipment and parts as required by Line Staff and the operation.
- Assist in jacking, towing, wheel and brake unit replacements and any other task assigned by the Shift In Charge.
- Provides support to superiors in the accomplishment of their duties and responsibilities.
- Assist technicians in the performing their duties.
- Clean and service/ replenish Company Vehicles.
- Shall be responsible for ensuring that work carried out as part of his duties is performed and recorded in a satisfactory manner.
- Cockpit cleaning, seat cover replacement and any other cleaning requirements that may arise out of the performance of maintenance.
- Organize and keep clean the hangar and the equipment.
- Reporting any errors including those corrected by self and contributing towards the successful implementation of the Company-wide Safety Management System.

- ❑ Other tasks/duties that may be assigned from time to time.

Self-improvement

- ❑ Ensures to be informed and up to date on requirements of the specific position responsibilities.

Working Conditions

- ❑ Day, shift or staggered duty as required

Person Specifications

- ❑ Knowledge of the position specific field of expertise.
- ❑ Demonstrated capability to work as part of a team and be goal directed.
- ❑ Ability to communicate in Maltese and English.
- ❑ Ability to work under pressure and with minimum supervision.

Jobsplus Permit Number: 667/2022

Interested candidates may submit their CV by e-mail to the following address:

human.resources@airmalta.com